

Certificate of Assumed Name and Notice of Transfer of Reserved Name

Summary

This legal document is a formal declaration by MARY JANE DOE, asserting the right to use and conduct business under the assumed name "MARY JANE DOE" and its variations. It also addresses the ownership and control of the GRANTOR TRUST ESTATE, which was allegedly formed without informed consent. The document claims the rights and interests of Mary Jane Doe as the true and rightful owner of the ESTATE and all its derivatives.

Key Sections

Return Information

Return To: The document is to be returned to MARY JANE DOE, identified as the Grantor, Donor, Beneficiary, and Agent, at her mailing address in Velddrif, Western Cape.

Certificate of Assumed Name

Assumed Name: The document establishes the assumed name "MARY JANE DOE" and all variations thereof as the legal name for conducting business.

Notice of Transfer: It declares the transfer of the reserved name and all associated rights and interests to Mary Jane Doe.

Trust and Estate Information

Cestui Que Vie Trust: The document claims that the GRANTOR is a Cestui Que Vie Trust, created without Mary Jane Doe's knowledge or consent, and that unauthorized debts have been accumulated against the ESTATE.

Invocation of Rights: Mary Jane Doe invokes Article IV of the Cestui Que Vie Act 1666, declaring herself alive and entitled to all benefits and interests in the GRANTOR TRUST ESTATE, free from any liens, debts, or encumbrances established by the Republic of South Africa Incorporated (RSA Inc.).

Registration Reason

Reinstatement: The document registers the reinstatement of Mary Jane Doe as the actual holder in due course of the ESTATE name and property, affirming her lawful entitlement and ownership.

Business Information

Business Name: The document lists the various forms of the business name, including MARY JANE DOE, DOE, MARY JANE, JANE DOE, and MARY J. DOE.

Business Description: It defines the business activities related to commerce, grantor responsibilities, and signatory duties.

Owner Information

True and Real Trade Name: The document details Mary Jane Doe's full name and physical post office location, affirming her status as the Grantee, Beneficiary, and Holder.

Legal and Financial Claims

Habeas Corpus: The document asserts the right to institute legal actions in the courts of the Republic while maintaining domicile on the land and soil of Southern Africa.

Tax Exemption: It claims exemption from taxes, tithes, and fees for the ESTATE and all related assets.

Protection from Encumbrances: The document asserts that any actions taken against Mary Jane Doe's property by corporate entities will be liable to penalties and liens.

Mandatory Notice

Foreign Sovereign Status: Mary Jane Doe declares her status as a Foreign Sovereign, owed all rights, guarantees, and protections under the RSA.

Non-Subject to Presumed Benefits: The document affirms that Mary Jane Doe is not subject to any presumed benefits or obligations from the Republic of South Africa Incorporated.

Execution

Issuance Date: The document is issued on the 25th of May 2022 in the Westcoast District, South African Republic.

Autograph and Seal: The document includes a space for Mary Jane Doe's signature, autograph, and seal, with all rights reserved.

Witness and Acknowledgment Section

Witnesses: The document includes a section for two witnesses to confirm that they observed the execution of the document by Mary Jane Doe.

Acknowledgment: The witnesses must provide their full names and autograph the document to affirm its validity.