

Anna Von Reitz – Fiduciary

I am a Great-grandma from Big Lake, Alaska, who can read and think like millions of other Americans and for whatever reasons-- mostly a 17 year-long battle with the IRS--I decided to research the mess this country is in and how we got here.

The bare bones of that research and our resulting claim against the British Crown, various national governments, the American Bar Association, and at least five international banking cartels is presented in our sworn and published affidavit.

Anna was born June 6, 1956. Her and her husband Jim are considered the Shepherds sent to guard the flock; they fight with wolves and lions...

She has been writing articles explaining the history of America, and how it has been abused for centuries. She has sounded the alarm, and fought for the living men and women around the globe to restore order and justice, ...

She has written over 5 400 articles explaining everything we need to know about the huge fraud that has been committed, and how to status correct and re-claim your birthright.

She also realised the need for a financial system to replace our current corrupt institutions, and has been working since 2007 to put a New Land Jurisdiction Bank into place.

All this information is available on her website annavonreitz.com.

Once we have been shown the lie, we each have a choice to make... continue living in the lie, or stand up and fight for the truth.

... the only kinds of courts we have are commercial courts, or administrative courts... which are for dead corporate fiction, to manage the dead mans estate and companies...

Once you have declared yourself as alive, and reconveyed your name etc, you become the owner and controller of your own estate.... they have created and controlled all these public trusts and set themselves up as your trustees... its an illegal, unlawful and repugnant practice, and yet they have gotten away with it for so long, they just assume they can continue to get away with it. Well, you can do something about it...

As the presumed donor of these public trusts, you can take back control of them...

Take this example... if I drop my pocketbook, and someone picks it up, they can see that it belongs to me, because it has my name in it, but they dont know me... That person becomes a trustee of my pocketbook, which may contain money or value. That person decides they will invest that money on my behalf, as a trustee of the pocketbook. That money gets held under the name of a business corporation named after me. The person who has become the trustee, had to create the trust because they dont know me, but they used my name etc. That person now manages this trust because they are the creator and signatory to it.

This is what has been happening.

They pretend that they dont know us, as a living man or woman, but they are acting as executors of a trust in our name.

Then, what I do by declaring that I am actually alive and that the pocketbook is actually my property, and that I know that they have invested on my behalf, I can decide that I want my property back because I am the donor.

So, I get back my pocketbook, and the accounts that they have been managing for me whilst I was missing... its in my name, it was my money, my assets that were used to set it all up, and now, that all belongs to me. Oh, and they also used my money and my assets to create credit for themselves...

The person whose assets were used to generate the collateral, owns the collateral, and also the interest generated and all the credit generated from this collateral.

- These are the documents that we complete as part of the status correction (528) and/or emancipation (928).

Anna has been working on this for years... A New Land Jurisdiction Bank has been underway since 2007... They have already been able to recoup 3 Trillion Dollars in Gold, but that's just the tip of the iceberg!

You need to learn that you are the creditors, you are the rightful owners, and a way to preserve your future, is to take control of your own governance. If we don't, its probably going to sink back into the same racketeering model that we have now!

The return of what is owed to you is already beginning. We all, however, need to educate ourselves in common law, and what is needed to self govern and we also need to step up and assist with our own talents or passions in our own state assembly.
